

About the Client

The client is a pioneering technology company dedicated to transforming the financial relationship businesses have with their customers. It serves customers in financial assessment, debt & insolvency, collection & payments, lending and other businesses to create and deliver solutions that improve the financial well-being of millions of people and engagement and outcomes across collections and recovery.

Services Provided

Since 2022, Hengtian has provided a full range of business services including:

- development and maintenance of multiple platforms
- system migration and reconstruction
- customer project delivery and technical support

Throughout the cooperation with the client, Hengtian team responds to clients’ needs and provides tailored solutions and technical support accordingly.

Voice of the Client

“We chose Hengtian as we were keen to utilize their rich experience, and enjoy the accurate technology solutions they offer, Thanks to the efforts of Hengtian team so that our system can be successfully and efficiently completed development and have stable maintenance.”

— Program Manager